

Lamborn “Mary-Hāna Rosé” Wine 2024

100% single vineyard Oak Knoll, Napa Valley Rosé of Grenache

The growing season kicked off with heavy winter rains, which saturated soils and laid a foundation for healthy vegetative growth, preparing the vines for expansive heat events from June through harvest. Beginning earlier than in 2023, this harvest was considered more “normal” for a Napa Valley vintage in terms of overall timing. Dynamic and rich in flavor, the 2024 vintage promises to deliver quality wines that capture the unique character of Napa Valley, blending boldness with elegance.

Winemaker Chelsea Barrett’s tasting notes:

"Our latest Rosé of Grenache exhibits an attractive pink and orange hue, with the aromas as vibrant as its color. Guava and passionfruit dominate the nose with delicate floral notes of elderflower. With flavors similar to the bouquet, these tropical fruits blend with citrus and honey undertones, producing a deliciously crisp, uplifting dry Rosé."
